Bishop Sullivan to Confirm Today

JUST A WORD ...

by Father Harvey

I feel rather alone this Tuesday evening as I write this article. The office adjacent to my own is empty and quiet. There's no restle of ol' Finnegan's dog chain. The good-byes have been spoken sometimes ever so bravely and at times haltingly. Owosso has a new pastor and St. John's has lost a man of manifest deep love for a people he was called to serve over five years ago. Somehow the official notification I received by Special Delivery mail last Friday evening seems so unreal. The official letter from Bishop Zaleski began:

Dear Father Harvey:

Due to the transfer of the Reverend William G. King, the office of Pastor of St. John, Ypsilanti, is vacant as of April 2, 1973.

In accordance with Canon 743, I am appointing you Temporary Administrator, effective April 2, 1973, until such time as a permanent Pastor will be appointed..."

More than a 'transfer' has occurred; more than an 'office' is vacant. One who shared with all of us, a vision gleaned from the Gospel of Jesus Christ, has been called to share yet more with a new people. These are not thoughts from a eulogy because their truth is too alive; nor are they words of a dreamy romanticist for their reality has cut too permanently. They describe accurately, though, the intense dedication and the sensitive commitment of William G. King.

A tally of successes and defeats, accomplishments and failures, would never tell much of the story. After all, Good Friday and Easter are integrals of one life-mystery. And so, I can only hope tonight that the vision, the words, and the life that Fr. King has tried to share with you and with me will continue to 'burn in our hearts' as we strive to become a people worthy of the calling we have received.

That's all I can say and hope in Just A Word.

TO THE PARISHIONERS OF ST. JOHN'S:

If it is difficult to find an adequate substitute for the word, "Goodbye," it is even more frustrating to find a substitute for the word, "Thank You" - one that might contain all the ingredients of what the heart feels when so many people do and say so many wonderful things.

The one response I felt most strongly when I told you of my decision and its ramifications by the Bishop was one of 'understanding.' And, to be sure, I have come to understand you well enough that to anticipate anything less would be the result of a woeful underestimate of the kind of people we have here at St. John's. For this wonderful understanding, I am truly grateful.

The willingness to stand in line for a brief moment of personal farewell was most gratifying. I am sure the shock and suddenness of this announcement caught you quite by surprise and you had to pull together many feelings to come to the adjustment that you did. For this I am truly grateful.

Your patient and attentive listening while I stumbled and fumbled for the right words and your understanding glance as you received Communion, gave me more support than you will ever realize. For this I am truly grateful.

For the generosity you have shown in the parting gift, for this I am grateful.

All of these signs of the bond that has developed make this parting the sweet sorrow that it is.

For the forgiveness and love that all of these signs imply, I am deeply grateful.

And as I read all of this over I see that I still end up with the inadequacy I started out with in simply saying, "Thank You," and God bless you and keep you ever the person of faith and hope that you are.

Father King

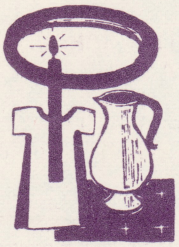
PENANCE SERVICE ON FRIDAY

All of our parishioners will have a special opportunity to celebrate the Sacrament of Penance this coming Friday, March 13 at 7:30 p.m. This Penance Service will replace the Stations of the Cross on Friday evening. Additional priests will be available to hear confessions that evening as we prepare to actively participate in the Great Days of Holy Week. The attendance at a similar service last year was most commendable. Try to make every effort to be present on Friday evening and celebrate that reconciling forgiveness that Christ has been calling us to during this Lenten season.

PALM SUNDAY

The blessing and procession with palms will take place at the 5:00 p.m. Mass on Saturday, April 14. Those who will be participating in this Liturgy are asked to ASSEMBLE IN THE MAIN FOYER OF THE EDUCATION CENTER. The palms will be blessed there and the procession will also begin from the school.

The solemn chanting of the Passion will take place during the 5:00 p.m. Mass on Saturday and again during the 11:00 a.m Mass on Sunday.



CATECHUMEN ENROLLMENT

On Tuesday evening, April 17, those who will be received into our community during the Easter Vigil Mass through the Sacrament of Baptism or Profession of Faith will begin the preliminary steps toward full initiation during a celebration at 7:30 p.m. in our church. Try to join us for this special ceremony and offer your supportive presence and encouragement to our new converts.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The family of Louise M. Chadwick wishes to express its appreciation to the entire St. John's Parish Community for its concern and prayers. Especially, we wish to thank Father King, Father Harvey, Sister Mary, Sister Carol, Sister Anne, Sister Sheila, the ushers, and all the ladies of the parish for their help and consideration. Your faith and generosity are an inspiration to all of us.

FURNITURE NEEDED

Needy family would greatly appreciate small dresser for storing infant clothing. Please contact Nancy Cozak, R.N. at 764-5420.

RIGHT TO LIFE MEETING

The Washtenaw County Right to Life group will hold an organizational meeting on Wednesday night, April 11, at 8:00 p.m. in the Geneva Smith Library at St. Francis Church in Ann Arbor. All interested persons are invited to attend, especially the ladies of the parish who said they were interested in helping the Right to Life group. This is a good time to begin.

THIS IS THE LAST DAY OF THE BOY SCOUT PAPER DRIVE

PLEASE BRING YOUR SAVED NEWSPAPERS TO THE PARKING LOT.

PASCHAL DINNER

This year, as in the past, 200 parishioners will have the opportunity of participating in the Paschal Meal which will be held April 18 at 6:30 p.m. Tickets are being sold by the ushers after all the Masses on Sundays or by Mary Wheeler during the Potluck Dinners held at 6:30 p.m. on Wednesday evenings. The tickets are $2.00 per person. Children age 12 and under at $.75. The worship commission is working on a new program for this year's dinner.

The Paschal Meal, as you know, is the special religious meal celebrated by the Jewish people at Passover time. It was such a meal that Jesus shared with his disciples before he celebrated His own Passover in His death and resurrection. It was during such a meal that Christ instituted the New Covenant, the Holy Eucharist. Since our present - day Christian Mass has its roots in this familial religious meal, the celebration of the Paschal Meal can be a very rich experience and a beautiful preparation for the celebration of the greatest of all Christian Holy days, Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and Easter.

SHOCKING NEWS

PROJECT TRANSITION NEEDS WORKERS

Project Transition is considering stopping its program because of a lack of regular weekly parish volunteers and a lack of transportation for patients.

We began with 8 workers and because of people moving, etc. our numbers have diminished to 4. Only 2 of these are from our parish.

We have appreciated all the help we have received in the way of food and transportation from some of you, but are disappointed that none of the parishioners have felt they could spare 2 hours a week with the patients.

A great deal of good has been done in the past year. The people we served will lose the only community activity available to them.

If anyone has 2 hours a week to spare to help save this humanitarian endeavor, please call Sister Carol Denise. She will apprise you of the work we do and the needs we have so that Project Transition can stay alive in Ypsilanti.

NOTE: A word of thanks is due here to Mrs. Theresa Ellis who has been one of the staunch supporters and workers with these Ypsi State Hospital patients who need direction in order to function and be needed in the society in which they live. Terri may be moving soon and we will be missing a dedicated worker and loving parishioner who has given much of her time and talents to working with the needy. We wish her well in her new home and want her to know how grateful the Service Commission is to have had someone so giving as part of their staff. Hopefully, she will continue her good works wherever she goes and thus take part of the image of St. John's with her.

EMPTY AND QUIET

All too soon, five years have been spent and are part of a past which has seen visions and dreams, hopes and needs, desires for the life of renewal at St. John's.

A major factor in this loving renewal has been Fr. King's manifest desire to make our parishioners aware in such a manner that they understood that renewal meant "new life" for the church and for each individual.

Knowing that he must set the example he undertook self-renewal through various means, attending discussions in Detroit and Lansing, becoming familiar with programs offered in various diocese, participating in workshops whenever opportunities arose, and becoming a "Roman" for 5 months in order to update his theological perspective. PIC. 1 Of course, some of the photos sent left us wondering which century his participation centered upon, but we found upon his return that specific garb didn't reflect the new inner attitudes. PIC. 2 While in Europe he took the opportunity to refresh body as well as mind as is evidenced in a period of relaxation with friends in Germany. PIC. 3 Upon his return he gave further input into the life of responsible sharing through the pastoral team workweek which he planned in the vicinity, allowing the parish council and many parishioners the benefit of participation. We learned together of the future he hoped would be most satisfactory for the people of St. John's. PIC. 4 He gave his all when he frequented Religious Instructions, putting body and soul into his presentations in order to introduce another angle of interest to an already existing area of concern.

He was a true spiritual leader as he responded to the seeds of the faith sown in the past and being advanced today. PIC. 5 He was mentor and friend to Fr. Terry Kerner as he advanced from Sub-deacon to Deacon, to Priesthood, being ordained at St. John's in February of 1972 in the presence of the community in which he had worshipped. PIC. 6 Preparation for the sacraments became so much more alive when Fr. King allowed each individual the beauty of creative expression, and they learned together what it meant to be alive in faith.

Ever ready with the quick wit and gentle repartee for which he is noted, we find he is at home in any area of life at St. John's. PIC. 7 A recognizable face appeared in the garb of the Cure of Ars when a party was held for our 125th celebration. An infectious laugh left no doubt of the human enjoyment this disguise effected for him and others. PIC. 8 A gathering of the "clan" always necessitated a group photo, especially when so many could return for a celebration. Our 125th year was celebrated with gusto whether it was the opening Mass, dinner, parties, or dances, because "the king" was on hand to move us with his presence, inspire us with his vision, and love us with his whole self.

"Have I got a surprise for you," was one of his favorite sayings and it seems that Father Harvey benefited from these surprises when along about July 14th plans were always secretive as to where and when to expect a birthday to be celebrated. PIC. 9 It could be a simple dinner and party at a friend's home as evidenced the year the Schreppers were hosts and Father King felt he had put one over on Fr. David. PIC. 10 Even Napoleon Bonaparte couldn't have hidden his hand better than Fr. King who gave the opening remarks at the 30th celebration, never indicating the traumatic phases Fr. David had in store throughout the evening.

PIC. 11 Ever faithful Finnegan waited for acknowledgement that he was "man's best friend" as he dogged the footsteps of his master in an attempt to receive a friendly gesture between conferences, phone calls, typing, and a general dedication to work. Most days he waited long hours patiently because time was more preciously spent in efforts toward parishioner needs

And now our refreshing spirit has moved on, leaving us renewed and capable of expending ourselves for the life of St. John's He was given an "offer he couldn't resist" and will spend these next years working for renewal in OWOSSO, where the spirit of St. John's will be generated because it is the same man who will be seeing visions and dreams, hopes and needs, desires for the life of renewal there.

The team sadly bid him farewell with the encouraging words, "try it, you'll like it!", knowing that he will be at home anywhere, because anywhere he is, is home.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

A recent letter here feel prey to many common falacies about poverty and government in an attack on the "Nixon Administration" for proposed cuts in the welfare program.

Many abuses of the public trust and treasury have been committed in the name of fighting poverty - yet the only poverty which has been defeated has been to insure jobs for overpaid social workers to prance about proclaiming the constant need for yet more money and bigger government to defeat more poverty.

The last eight years have made it tragically clear that government and money are not panaceas for human suffering. We cannot buy our way into automatic prosperity for everyone, and we now have billions more in government debt and greater poverty just to prove it. Bureaucratic bungling lost the "War on Poverty'. and more of the same will not now win it.

President Nixon campaigned last year on a very specific platform of welfare reform. He stated he was no longer going to tolerate the worthless boondoggles of the past where we see second and third generations on welfare while chislers and charletans continue to flourish. The American people supported this and re-elected him by a record-breaking margin, and they expect him to carry through on his campaign pledges.

Our own Church and every other Church cannot expect governement to solve such things and bring us to a latter-day Garden of Eden with some form of monetary elixir. We must continue to have our Churches involved in helping others rather than abstaining and shouldering it on to government. Voluntary agencies such as the Community Chest, Salvation Army, and the like do much better than all of the so-called professionals put together. And in view of the skyrocketing welfare costs and ADC caseload, it is obvious no one is going without food and shelter and other necessities as the professional tocsin trumpeters would stampede you into believing, because of President Nixon.

The issue of "tax loopholes" is a fine one to bring up in a Church newspaper. If you start closing up the top 10 loopholes as far as lost revenue to the government is concerned, then you can forget about Church contributions being tax exempt along with Church properties. Every tax "loophole" is on the books because our elected representatives put it there for a specific reason. Oil depletion allowances are popular subjects for attack. God ahead and repeal them and see how much more catastrophic the fuel shortage becomes because the oil companies do not have exploration money to reinvest. Other "loopholes" have similar sound reasons for existing and talk about closing them and reaping a financial bonanza for the average tax payer is just that - only talk.

The problems of welfare can best be solved through a balanced and cooperative approach on the part of government and the private sector of our economy. Let us devote our efforts in this direction.

John Milford,
Parishioner

THE GOSPEL

Among those who had come up to worship at the feast of Passover were some Greeks. They approached Philip, who was from Bethsaida in Galilee, and put this request to him: "Sir, we should like to see Jesus." Philip went to tell Andrew; Philip and Andrew in turn came to inform Jesus. Jesus answered them: "The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified. I solemnly assure you, unless the grain of wheat falls to the earth and dies, it remains just a grain of wheat. But if it dies, it produces much fruit. The man who loves his life loses it, while the man who hates his life in this world preserves it to life eternal. If anyone would serve me, let him follow me; where I am, there will my servant be. If anyone serves me, him the Father will honor. My soul is troubled now, yet what should I say — Father, save me from this hour? But it was for this that I came to this hour. Father, glorify your name!" Then a voice came from the sky: "I have glorified it, and will glorify it again." When the crowd of bystanders heard the voice, they said it was thunder. Others maintained, "An angel was speaking to him." Jesus answered, "That voice did not come for my sake, but for yours. Now has judgment come upon this world, now will this world's prince be driven out, and I — once I am lifted up from earth — will draw all men to myself." This statement indicated the sort of death he had to die.
